

ST. CROSBY'S

FROM GOOD FIELD.

Lord Neville was overlooked in the betting, and ran as if State.

J. WOODS ON THREE WINNERS.

Iron Chancellor Beat Insurgent a Head in a Hot Finish—W. B. Gates Had an Easy Race—Libbie Won Again.

The warm and sultry weather conditions of yesterday afternoon did not deter any of the regulars from being on hand at the Fair Grounds to witness the running off of a rather ordinary card.

The track was in excellent condition, and the speculation much better than could be expected when one knows how the temperature rises when he has to push through a large crowd to get a bet down.

Jockey Johnny Woods was on deck with three winners. He landed Iron Chancellor at 4 to 1 and better in the first race; Sir Cuthbert, the favorite, in the fourth, and Libbie, an 8 to 1 chance, in the last race of the card.

A selling race at six furlongs was the introductory event, and the talent selected John P. Schorr's Kildarrie to turn the trick, but Kildarrie was not equal to the task, for, with good going from the way, he could do no better than third, while Iron Chancellor came from away back with Insurgent, and this pair looked up for a rattling drive for home. Iron Chancellor proved the best and landed the money by a head.

Robert Jr., looked to be the only thing in the second, but the bookmakers, remembering his backing up previously, chalked up as good as even against this speedy youngster. John P. Schorr started his big Escher coat, George W. Jenkins, in this event, and he ran a steady, honest race, and in the last stretch he showed his class, Jr., backed up and staggered enough to let George W. Jenkins win by a head. George C. Bennett's Escher coat, a gelding, W. B. Gates, had a very enjoyable outing for the third. He was heavily played all around the track, backed from 5 to 6 to 5 at post call. Gates went to the front shortly after the flag-fall and was never in danger of being overtaken. He won on the end by a length from Sprung, with Bonifard a neck back in third position.

The fourth race carried was a six-and-a-half-furlong affair, and although Sir Cuthbert looked to be in a real soft spot after his race last Saturday, plenty of money supported him, and he was backed three lengths in front of Mizuza, with Verity a poor third.

The fourth race brought ten maiden fillies of tender age to the post for a four-and-a-half-furlong scramble. Mr. C. Bunbury's Cassius filly, Cassius filly, was the favorite, and she was a well-backed 3 to 1 favorite.

She had an abundance of early speed, but not of the lasting kind, for a furlong from the crack she was following Frenchie to pass her and win easily. Jockey Evans' Derling also went by Crimp a head, and the place money by Crimp a length.

The last race on the card was a very wet betting proposition, and the things in plenty. Kismet, although her first out, was the pick of the smart set, and she was backed half a point. Sam Lazara, a Nebraska filly, was also a contender, and Libbie also had her hands full of lower. Jockey Stuart was very unfortunate with Kismet, as she was in the starting post in poor position and could not get through the bunch until the stretch was reached, when she closed the race, finishing third. While Kismet was in all kinds of trouble, Libbie and Sam Lazara had been in the running, while Libbie came along a bump and won from Sam Lazara by a couple of lengths.
